

Melanoma 2021: 31st Annual Cutaneous Malignancy Update

January 23-24, 2021

*LIVE STREAMING VIRTUAL EVENTExhibitor ProspectusAbout the Course

As the incidence of melanoma continues to rise rapidly in the United States and around the world, the need to educate clinicians from various specialties on the disease also increases. During this course nationally recognized experts will present information on prevention, risk assessment, early detection, genetic factors, and current and future treatment choices for melanoma patients. Issues concerning surgical management, adjuvant therapy, advanced disease therapy, and personalizing the course of treatment for individual patients will also be discussed. This course is designed to provide information that will help clinicians in their decision making regarding these difficult patient problems. The course will be taught by a wide range of experts as this most serious of skin cancers will require multidisciplinary efforts to conquer.

Benefits of Exhibiting & Supporting

Scripps Clinic's annual melanoma update is a nationally accredited continuing medical education conference for those involved in the care of patients with melanoma. As an exhibitor, you will have the opportunity to showcase your company's products and services to a targeted health care population. Here are just a few benefits exhibiting offers:

- Build visibility for your company in a competitive marketplace
- Introduce new products and services
- Exclusive exhibitor pages with logos, company descriptions and links to your website
- Ability to upload PDFs, brochures and other content to explain products to participants
- Post video messages for participants to review
- Excellent lead generating opportunity with low cost and effective reach
- Host satellite symposia to educate participants on your products

Scripps Clinic's Division of Dermatology & Cutaneous Surgery

From hard-to-treat skin cancers and dermatological conditions to cosmetic surgeries and lunch-hour laser treatments, the Scripps Clinic's Division of Dermatology and Cutaneous Surgery has the expertise needed to deliver high quality care and produce outstanding results. Our clinicians have served the San Diego community for more than 20 years, providing medical, surgical and cosmetic services. With specialized training and a compassionate approach, they use the latest and safest devices and techniques to prevent, diagnose and treat diseases and conditions of the hair, skin and nails. Scripps Clinic's board-certified dermatologists practice at several locations throughout the San Diego area, providing comprehensive care for all dermatological health concerns.

Application Review

For an exhibit application to be accepted by Scripps, the products and services must be educational in nature and relate to the educational activity content. Scripps reserves the right to accept or reject a potential exhibitor based on its assessment of whether the company/organization's products and/or services are relevant to the conference content. All exhibits will be reviewed by Scripps.

Scripps reserves the right to refuse the application of any party whose product, service or proposed exhibit is, in Scripps sole discretion, not in keeping with the character of the educational activity and exhibition hall. Approval of the exhibit application is in the sole discretion of Scripps, and may be withheld, among other reasons, for: (a) poor credit history of Exhibitor, including but not limited to past due amounts owing to Scripps, or (b) breach of the Conditions or any other contract provisions governing any previous trade show or other event conducted or sponsored by Scripps.

CME Guidelines Related to Educational Grants, Virtual Exhibit Space and Promotional Activities

In compliance with the ACCME Standards for Commercial Support, arrangements for commercial exhibits or advertisements cannot influence planning or interfere with the presentation, nor can they be a condition of the provision of commercial support for CME activities.

- Exhibit and other promotional fees shall be separate and distinct from educational grants/commercial support.
- All exhibits must be in a separate virtual space from the education and the exhibits must not interfere or in any way compete with the learning experience prior to, during, or immediately after the activity.
- Company representatives must refrain from holding any commercial discussions in the virtual educational platform including use of the chat option. Canvassing or distributing promotional materials outside the virtual exhibit hall is not permitted.
- Commercial interest representatives may attend CME activities at the discretion of Scripps for the direct purpose of the representatives' own education. However, they may not engage in sales or marketing activities while in the virtual education space.

Virtual Exhibit Conditions, Rules and Regulations

Exhibits must adhere, in each case in the determination of Scripps in its sole discretion, to each of the following standards:

- Exhibitor must promote the marketing of products and services that relate to the educational activity content.
- Exhibitor may encourage or advance its own products, equipment or services; however, Exhibitor shall not unfairly criticize the products or methods of any other exhibitor.
- Exhibitor shall not directly or indirectly promote or advertise any idea or product which is inconsistent with the stated purpose of the educational activity content.
- Exhibitor shall not infringe the copyrights, trademarks or other intellectual property rights of any third party or unfairly compete with other exhibits.
- Exhibitor's exhibit shall not have an undesirable or unreasonable deleterious effect upon another exhibit or the educational activity.
- Scripps reserves the right to prohibit or remove any virtual exhibit which detracts from the general character of the Exhibition as a whole or consists of products or services inconsistent with the purpose of the Exhibition. The right to prohibit or remove includes, but is not limited to, such individuals, things, conduct, printed matter or anything else of a character which Scripps deems objectionable.
- Scripps reserves the right, in its sole discretion, to refuse any company, including without limitation any employee of Exhibitor, admission to the virtual exhibit hall and activity.
- Scripps accepts no responsibility for breakdown or failure of any of the services provided for, or in connection with, the Exhibition.

Material Distribution/Canvassing

Canvassing in any part of the virtual educational platform utilized during the Scripps CME program is strictly forbidden, and any organization doing so will be removed from the activity. Distribution of advertising or printed material by the exhibitor outside of the exhibitor's paid virtual exhibition space will not be permitted.

FDA Regulations

Exhibitors are reminded of the Food and Drug Administration (FDA) restrictions on the promotion of investigational and pre-approved drugs and devices. Exhibitors are also cautioned about FDA prohibition of promoting approved drugs for unapproved purposes. Information regarding FDA regulations may be obtained directly from the FDA. Requests for information and guidance can be obtained at www.fda.gov/cder, the FDA's medical advertising information line, 301-796-1200, or directed to:
